ABOUT CHAD:

- CHaD is an acronym for Children's Hospital at Dartmouth-Hitchcock.
- CHaD is New Hampshire's only comprehensive, full-service children's hospital.
- CHaD has a network of over 250 providers, including 180 pediatric specialists and 77 general pediatricians, in 13 locations in NH and VT.
- CHaD never turns a child away due to financial circumstances. Our specialists take care of the region's sickest and most critically injured patients regardless of their ability to pay for their care.
- CHaD cares for over 85,000 unique patients with over 300,000 visits annually.
- CHaD is home to the state's leading injury prevention program.
- Many programs at CHaD rely on philanthropy, such as Child Life Services, helping minimize the psychological trauma of staying in the hospital.

ABOUT THE GAME:

- The game was inspired by WMUR sports director Jamie Staton, who has remained strongly involved with the event and CHaD.
- Firefighters and police officers from across the state bring their passion and skills to the ice in a fast-paced, physical game of hockey.
- Each player commits to raising at least $1,500 in order to play in the game.
- Players are buddied up with CHaD patients as a way to engage and stay connected with the game's mission.
- In 2019, the game raised over $278,000.
