Welcome to My Personal Page

Body

Welcome to my Friends Fighting Cancer Fundraiser page. Through this fundraiser I will be raising money on behalf of the Friends of Norris Cotton Cancer Center.

Money raised helps fund cancer research and patient supportive services at Dartmouth and Dartmouth Hitchcock's Norris Cotton Cancer Center, one of only 51 comprehensive cancer centers designated by the National Cancer Institute. Supporting my Friends Fighting Cancer fundraiser means supporting researchers and clinicians who are working on innovative ways to prevent, diagnose, treat and hopefully, one day, cure cancer. You're also supporting important patient supportive services that would otherwise not be funded such as support groups, massage, writing and arts therapy programs.

Click the donate button to support my fundraising efforts.

Thank you for your support!

Be a friend. Make a difference. Fight cancer.
